

My son C loves going to school. At La Petite Ecole, he goes on outings, paints, sings, reads, and he has made friends. Every morning when my husband drops him off, he hugs and kisses all of his classmates. At night, when I pick him up, I get to see all the things that he has done during the day. Patricia is very organized, every week has a theme and we know in advance what they are going to learn and do. I have seen him progress so much since he has started school. It's just amazing to see how much he has changed and grown. I can't wait for his little brother to join the school!
